GUIDEBOOKS

YOU will add greatly to the enjoyment of your trip if you will procure a guidebook of the park, and refer to it as you go from one point of interest to another. At the offices of the transportation company at Cody, West Yellowstone, and Mammoth Hot Springs, at the Government information office, and at the ranger stations the National Park Service distributes free of charge a Government booklet describing all of the interesting features of the park, the geyser and hot spring phenomena, the canyons, lakes, mountains, and fish. This booklet also contains the rules and regulations of the park. It has a few illustrations.

The Haynes Guidebook, an elaborately illustrated volume, approved by the National Park Service, is on sale in the hotels, lodges, stores, information office, and picture shops at 75 cents and $1.50.

KEEP THIS MANUAL. IT IS INVALUABLE AND CAN NOT BE REPLACED

MANUAL FOR RAILROAD VISITORS

You have just entered Yellowstone National Park. In bidding you welcome, the National Park Service asks you to remember that you are visiting a great playground that belongs in part to you, and that while you are at liberty to go anywhere in the park with perfect freedom, you owe it to yourself and to your fellow citizens to do nothing that will injure any of the natural features of the park, the geyser and hot spring formations, the trees, the wild animals, or birds.

The park was set apart from the public domain by Congress in 1872 and dedicated as a "pleasuring ground for the benefit and enjoyment of the people." It was enacted that it should remain forever as such. Thus we of the present generation are obliged legally and morally to so use and enjoy the park that it will remain forever in essentially its natural state.

Help protect Yellowstone National Park and especially its things of beauty that might be desecrated by the carved initial or other inscription; and throw nothing in the springs or craters.

THE FIRE DANGER

The area of the park is 3,348 square miles, or 2,142,720 acres. Over 85 per cent of this great reservation is covered with dense forests of pine, fir, spruce, and other trees. You will pass through some of these vast forests in your tour of the park, and you are particularly urged to use the greatest caution in handling matches, cigar and cigarette stubs, and pipe ashes. Extinguish every spark before throwing them away. In one year 306 fires in Yellowstone Park were caused by careless handling of matches and stubs of cigars and cigarettes. Many tourists found responsible for these fires suffered arrest for violation of the regulations, then trial, and the imposition of heavy fines for their negligence.

You can not be too careful with fire.

GRAND TOUR OF YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Thousands of visitors to Yellowstone National Park coming by rail choose the 4½ days' sightseeing tour, using the busses of the Yellowstone Park Transportation Co. and the accommodations of either the hotel system or the system of lodges. Persons interested in natural history or geology should take a 5½-day tour, spending 1 day at Roosevelt Lodge.

The regular tickets for this tour cover transportation service and 14 meals and 4 lodgings in either hotels or lodges.

When passengers use "A" tours and the Lander entrance tours, as designated on pages 5 to 11, inclusive, requiring less than 14 meals, refund will be made of charge for one meal in case of Tours 1A, 3A, 5A, 7A, 8A, 10A, 17, 18, 19, 20, two meals in case of Tours 4, 6A, 9, 14, 25, and three meals in case of Tours 4A, 9A, and 16. Such refund will be made by representative of Yellowstone Park Hotel Co., or Lodge Co., as the case may be, when passenger's rail coupon is exchanged at Mammoth Hot Springs or West Yellowstone.

When passengers elect to change from lodge tour to hotel tour, or vice versa, adjustment will be made by hotel company or lodge company, as case may be, on basis of service performed on American plan, from time of registration until checking out.

Passengers may remain in Yellowstone Park as long as desired, within the park season, upon the payment of the regular rates for additional hotel or lodge accommodations, but without additional charge for automobile transportation via route of the regular Yellowstone Park Tours.

The cost of the 4½ days' tour via hotels is $54, covering transportation, meals, and lodgings for the complete tour. IMPORTANT RULES AND REGULATIONS TO KEEP IN MIND

FIRE, DESECRATION, ARREST, FINE, IMPRISONMENT

The following sections of the rules and regulations which are the law of the park should ever be kept in mind and faithfully observed:

1. Preservation of natural features and curiosities.—It is forbidden to remove or injure the sediments or incrustations around the geysers, hot springs, or steam vents; or to deface the same by written inscriptions or otherwise; or to throw any object or substance into the springs or steam vents; or to injure or disturb in any manner or to carry off any of the mineral deposits, specimens, natural curiosities, or wonders within the park; or to ride or drive upon any of the geyser or hot spring formations; or to turn stock loose to graze in their vicinity.

The destruction, injury, defacement, or disturbance in any way of the public buildings, signs, equipment, or other property, or the trees, flowers, vegetation, rocks, mineral, animal, or bird or other life is prohibited: Provided, That flowers may be gathered in small quantities when, in the judgment of the superintendent, their removal will not impair the beauty of the park. Before any flowers are picked permit must be secured from ranger in charge.

3. Fires.—Fires constitute one of the greatest perils to the park; they shall not be kindled near trees, dead wood, moss, dry leaves, forest mold, or other vegetable refuse, but in some open space on rocks or earth. Should camp be made in a locality where no such open space exists or is provided, the dead wood, moss, dry leaves, etc., shall be scraped away to the rock or earth over an area considerably larger than that required for the fire. Fires shall be lighted only when necessary, and when no longer needed shall be completely extinguished and all embers and bed smothered with earth or water so that there remains no possibility of reignition.

Especial care shall be taken that no lighted match, cigar, or cigarette is dropped in any grass, twigs, leaves, or tree mold.

5. Bears.—Molesting or teasing the bears is prohibited.

6. Fishing.—Fishing with nets, seines, traps, or by the use of drugs or explosives, or in any other way than with hook and lines, or for merchandise or profit is prohibited. Fishing in particular waters may be suspended by the superintendent, who may also designate waters which shall be reserved exclusively for fishing with the artificial fly. All fish hooked less than 8 inches long shall be carefully handled with moist hands and returned at once to the water, if not seriously injured. Fish retained should be killed.

Ten fish per person shall constitute the limit for a day's catch.

18. Fines and penalties.—Persons who render themselves obnoxious by disorderly conduct or bad behavior shall be subjected to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for violation of the foregoing regulations, or they may be summarily removed from the park by the superintendent and not allowed to return without permission in writing from the Director of the National Park Service or the superintendent of the park.

Any person who violates any of the foregoing regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, and be adjudged to pay all costs of the proceedings.

Any person who violates any of the foregoing regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, and be adjudged to pay all costs of the proceedings.

TIME-TABLES

EXPLANATION

NOTE FOR VISITORS.—These schedules show the driving time between points, and time of departure of the first car on each schedule. The time of departure from each hotel and lodge for each tour will be announced at the hotels and lodges.

Column 1.—Speed of car in miles per hour. Speed opposite one station is used to the next station.

Column 2.—Speedometer readings at stations.

Column 3.—Names of stations.

Column 4.—Stops: When the word "Slow" appears, cars are to proceed at a speed not exceeding 5 miles per hour. On account of the narrowness of the roads and sharp curves, it is impracticable for cars to come to a full stop at many of the stations on account of the consequent blocking of the roadway.

Column 5.—Time-table for car leaving initial point at time shown.

Column 6.—Passengers are invited to look at their watches on leaving the starting point, and to fill out this column accordingly. For instance, a car leaving Mammoth at 8.25 a. m. on time-table No. 3 would arrive at the different stations 10 minutes later than shown in column 5.

Column 7.—Passengers are invited to enter in this column the actual arriving time of their cars at the different stations. By checking this time against column 5 you can tell whether you are running on schedule or not.

The superintendent of the park has authority to change the following schedules without notice when in his judgment the public interests would be benefited by their alteration or revision.

GENERAL INFORMATION

THE TRANSPORTATION LINE

You are riding in automobiles operated by the Yellowstone Park Transportation Co., which holds a franchise from the Federal Government permitting it to conduct a transportation business on the park road system. The national park authorities prescribe the character of service that this company must give to the public, and all rates are approved by the Director of the National Park Service.

These cars were specially constructed for park touring and are constantly inspected by park officials.

These cars do not have the right of way on the park roads, but have the same privileges with respect to the use of the roads and the speed limits that are accorded all other automobiles. Your driver is experienced in operating cars on mountain roads, and he is specifically instructed to adhere strictly to all speed and other regulations.

THE SPEED LIMITS

The speed limit is 12 miles per hour on grades and when rounding sharp curves and 15 miles per hour in restricted areas. On good roads with straight open stretches the maximum limit is 25 miles per hour or less, as prescribed in the time-tables in this manual.

If these limits are exceeded you may be in danger of accident, and you should insist upon slower operation of the car. You would also perform a public service if you would report the driver's violation of the regulations at the next hotel or lodge, or by telephone to the park authorities, giving the driver's number for identification purposes.

If the driver neglects or refuses to stop at any point of interest indicated on the map herein you should insist on his immediate compliance with his instructions.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE PARK

Yellowstone National Park is in charge of the superintendent, Mr. Horace M. Albright, whose office is at Mammoth Hot Springs, the park headquarters. Complaints and suggestions should be addressed to this officer in writing. The telephone service is also available for notifying the superintendent or nearest ranger station for emergency complaints regarding reckless driving on the roads, reports of forest fires, etc.

PROTECTION—THE RANGER SERVICE

The park is protected by the ranger force under the direction of the superintendent. The principal duties of the rangers include the patrolling of the roads and trails, control of automobile traffic, protection of the geyser and hot spring formations, sanitation of camps, etc., but they also answer inquiries and give general information regarding the park as opportunity permits. Do not hesitate to consult the rangers. They are here to aid you. Ranger stations are situated near every hotel and lodge and at every junction point on the road system.

THE GUIDE AND LECTURE SERVICE

In order to more completely inform Yellowstone Park visitors regarding the natural features of the park, the National Park Service has established a nature guide service at Mammoth Hot Springs, at Old Faithful, Yellowstone Lake, and at Roosevelt Lodge, where guides and lecturers are maintained on the ranger force to explain and interpret these features to the public. Trips are made afield, and are so arranged as to be available to everybody. This service is free, as are the lectures given in the evening at the various points on the history, geology, flora, and fauna of the park.

INFORMATION AND MUSEUM OFFICE

At park headquarters, Mammoth Hot Springs, there is a combined Museum and Information Office in the building at the north end of old Fort Yellowstone. Maps and other publications relating to all of the national parks of the United States are available in this office.

MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL SERVICE

The medical service of Yellowstone National Park has its headquarters at Mammoth Hot Springs where physicians and a surgeon of long professional experience are constantly available for attention to park visitors. A well-equipped hospital with trained nurses and other skilled personnel is a part of this service. A fine ambulance is kept in readiness for instant service.

Physicians of the medical service staff will promptly attend patients at any place in the park upon call. Trained nurses are also stationed in each hotel and lodge, except at Mammoth Hot Springs, and these establishments are provided with adequately equipped dispensaries.

In case of accident or illness requiring the service of a physician or nurse, you should proceed at once to the nearest hotel, lodge, or ranger station, where medical service can be summoned by telephone.

Rates for medical and hospital service are the same as prevailing rates in cities near the park.

LOST AND FOUND ARTICLES

Persons finding lost articles should deposit them at the nearest ranger station, leaving their own names and addresses, so that if not claimed by owners within 60 days articles may be turned over to those who found them. Also, if you have lost anything ask the ranger about it, or inquire at the Information Office at Mammoth.

THE PARK MILEPOST SYSTEM

The milepost signs in Yellowstone National Park are diamond-shaped steel signs with raised letters, which are in every case initials of a junction point on the loop road system or a park gateway.

The following is a key to the milepost initials:

N. E___ North entrance at Gardiner, Mont.
W. E___ West entrance at West Yellowstone, Mont.
E. E___ East entrance near Cody, Wyo.
S. E___ South entrance near Moran, Wyo.
M. S___ Mammoth Hot Springs where the north approach road joins the loop system.
N. J___ Norris Junction near Norris Geyser Basin where a road leads directly across the park to the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone.
M. J___ Madison Junction where the west approach road joins the loop system.
O. F___ Old Faithful at the head of Upper Geyser Basin.
W. T___ West Thumb of Yellowstone Lake where the south approach road joins the loop system.
L. J___ Lake Junction where the east or Cody approach road joins the loop system.
C. J___ Canyon Junction where a road leads directly across the park from the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone to Norris Geyser Basin.
T. J___ Tower Falls Junction where the road to the buffalo ranch and Cooke City leaves the loop system.
Mt. W__ Summit of Mount Washburn.

There is a ranger station at each of the above entrances and junction points.

As the map in the front of this booklet clearly shows, the main road system of Yellowstone Park is roughly in the form of a figure 8. This main system, called the Grand Loop Road of the park, consists of 140.6 miles of improved highways.

The approach roads are the feeders to the loop system, and they lead from all four park gateways to junction points as above indicated. The aggregate length of the approach roads in the park is 68.3 miles.

Other roads in the park have a combined length of 92.3 miles.

Outside of the park boundaries, by special authority of Congress, the National Park Service maintains 28 miles of the east approach road in the Shoshone National Forest and 30 miles of the south approach road in the Teton National Forest.

STOP-OVER PRIVILEGES

Yellowstone National Park is an ideal vacation resort. It is worth your time for a week, a month, or, indeed, the entire park season.

The four and one-half day's tour is properly designated as a "sight-seeing tour." It represents the minimum time for a circuit of the park loop with one-night stops at each center of scenic interest. While this tour is satisfactory from the standpoint of giving the visitors a general knowledge of the phenomena and primary scenic attractions of the park, it must of necessity fall far short of giving the visitors the benefits which follow a leisurely visit with time for healthful and recreational pastimes in the high, dry, pine-laden air of this great nature playground. You owe it to yourself to stop over at the hotels or camps as many additional days as your vacation allowance will permit. These stop-overs do not entail additional transportation expense. Each hotel and permanent camp is a center from which radiate roads and trails for automobiles, saddle-horse, walking, and fishing trips. On Yellowstone Lake are boats for scenic excursions and fishing.

The attention of all visitors is especially directed to Roosevelt Lodge, a unique and comfortable camp near Tower Falls on the loop road. This camp is named in commemoration of the visit of President Roosevelt to this region in April, 1903. Roosevelt Lodge is a resort center for visitors who desire to get off the beaten path and enjoy to the full the stimulating climate and activities which this camp affords. It is headquarters for trips to Grasshopper Glacier, Fossil Forest, and fishing trips to near-by trout streams. In addition, it appeals to visitors who are seeking rest and less strenuous recreation

If this information is not available, messages should be addressed to Mammoth Hotel, Yellowstone Park, Wyo., where every effort will be made to locate addressee.
